

2017 Shale & Public Health Conference

The Fifth Annual Shale & Public Health Conference will be held Monday, November 13, 2017
from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. (registration 8:30, adjournment 5:30)

The conference is presented by the League of Women Voters of Pennsylvania and hosted by the University of Pittsburgh Graduate School of Public Health at the University of Pittsburgh's University Club (123 University Place, Pittsburgh PA 15260).

This activity has been approved for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™
The University of Pittsburgh is an affirmative action, equal opportunity institution.

Featuring new research and practical applications:

- New health registry research results
- The latest Geisinger studies from Johns Hopkins' Brian Schwartz MD and Tara McAlexander MPH
- Researching the public health impacts of an ethane cracker and petrochemical development
- Gwen Ottinger PhD on Fenceline Monitoring
- Walter Tsou MD MPH, Executive Director Philadelphia PSR, past president of the American Public Health Association and former Health Commissioner of Philadelphia

... and more

There is also a special breakout session on addressing climate change issues in practice for those seeking professional credit hours.

Conference itself is free - $14 for buffet lunch

If you are coming from out-of-town, a block of discounted hotel rooms is available at the Wyndham Pittsburgh University Center if you register by October 22 (412) 682-6200, Code 1126841SH

More Information & Registration: www.shalepalwv.org
Or call 1-800-61-SHALE

You may also pass along this information to a friend or colleague who would be interested in attending.

Visit www.shalepalwv.org to Register